

ITEMS	YES	NO
Was the manuscript submitted through the OJS platform?
Is listed the metadata of each author?
The cover and originality letter is uploaded (this must be signed by each one of the authors)
In the cover letter, the type of article must be justified and the original contribution of the manuscript must be related.
Is the abstract presented in a structured way (context, method, results, conclusions, and keywords).
Is the submitted manuscript presented in the Journal template and in the template is defined the typology of the manuscript?
The authors have submitted two versions, one anonymous and the other with the author information
In the anonymous version of the manuscript, the acknowledgments should not be related.
Is the manuscript in a Microsoft Word or PDF format?
In the cover letter, the authors declare that they are aware of and accept the publication standards and the Code of Good Practice.
According to the result of the Turnitin software report, the article similarity percentage (%) is less or equal than 10%
Bibliographic references comply with the standards established by the Journal (IEEE Format).
The title in the metadata complies with the format of the Journal
The References have at least one article from Ingeniería Journal.
Were the figures and tables delivered in a separate folder (without caption)?
Verify that the authors have updated the institution in the CvLAC. (only for Colombian authors)		